ACTIVE INGREDIENT

Building Houses

Jazz fusion americano: Evasive action - Unpopular pop ballad - The grouper - Men in white - Building houses - Silk thread - Intro: Duck - Duck- Blues for old new age -Growth

University of Miami fusion ensemble, Active Ingredient: Marty Beller, drums ; Rob Dominis, keyboards ; Pete Gallio, tenor sax ; Dennis Marks, bass ; Scott Smith, guitar ; directed and produced by Steve Rucker

In the late 1980s and early 1990s, it seemed as though Active Ingredient had the potential to become the Jazz Messengers of fusion. In fact, the band's concept was similar to that of drummer Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers--lineups would change, and the idea was to feature young, undiscovered talent rather than established artists. One key difference, however, was the fact that unlike Blakey, Ingredient leader/producer Steve Rucker didn't actually play on his band's albums. A drummer who played around South Florida a lot, Rucker founded Ingredient at the University Of Miami (where he was a faculty member) in 1987. Having boasted such talented alumni as Pat Metheny, Danny Gottlieb, Mark Egan and the late Jaco Pastorius, The University's jazz program had a reputation for being very fusion-friendly. Ingredient came to be known as the "Fusion Ensemble" on campus and was comprised of Rucker's students. The band debuted on Bainbridge with 1988's Building Houses, followed by Extra Strength in 1990. Being "The Jazz Messengers Of Fusion" (this critic's words, not Rucker's) was a wonderful idea, but unfortunately, Ingredient never became as well known nationally as it deserved to be. ~ Alex Henderson

HANDY JOHN

Excursion in Blue - 1988, Disco solista per il grande Saxofonista di Mingus.

John Handy's first recording as a leader in eight years is one of his very few conventional straight-ahead sessions. Assisted by either Jim McNeely or Buddy Montgomery on piano, bassist Rufus Reid and either Billy Hart or Eddie Marshall on drums, Handy (doubling on alto and tenor throughout the CD) performs four fairly straightforward originals, plus "My One and Only Love," Sonny Rollins' "Paul's Pal" and "How Deep Is the Ocean." John Handy plays so well throughout this little-known set that one wonders why he has recorded so infrequently throughout his career. Well worth picking up.

Rita Botto è un'artista che trova nella sua Sicilia l'energia di riprendere le importanti radici sonore che oggi tornano di attualità. La sua è una voce mediterranea tutta da scoprire: potente, duttile, spesso accarezzata da un vento aspro e malinconico. "Stranizza d'Amour" è un album di canzoni Siciliane, dove si celebra l'amore senza abbandonare il gusto per i racconti di sirene incantatrici e maghe alle prese con rituali magici. Un omaggio alla bellezza delle tinte siciliane che mescolate ad accompagnamenti e sonorità morbide trasfigurano la tradizione fino a renderla meno contingente, dando origine ad un disco di sicuro più vicino al filone della musica World

Luna Presente

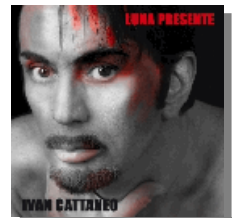

L'Aria, In/Con/Per:Amore, Amare L'assente, Ricordati di Te!, Buonanotte, Io canto accanto, Polisex4, Baby You don't cry!, Giochi proibiti, Crudele, Brutto pensiero, Boys and Girls.

Dopo tredici anni di assenza dalle scene discografiche, torna il cantautore elettronico Ivan Cattaneo con un nuovo album di inediti, "Luna presente". La produzione artistica è di Roberto Cacciapaglia (Gianna Nannini, Franco Battiato). Le dodici ballate, serenate dedicate alla Luna, che compongono il nuovo disco, sono anticipate dal singolo "L'aria", nelle radio dai primi di ottobre. Ivan Cattaneo, nasce a Bergamo il 18 Marzo 1953, dopo il Liceo artistico e svariati studi d'Arte, vive nella swinging London della musica glamour, della pittura di Bacon e delle trasformazioni di Bowie di cui diventa amico e da cui attinge grandi esperienze. Tornato in Italia incide i suoi primi 3 dischi sperimentali per L'ultima Spiaggia di Nanni Ricordi, il promotore di tutti i cantautori. Pioniere e paladino del primo punk rock italiano, è l'inventore dei primi gruppi dissacratori tipo Revolver o Elettroshock, nonché del lancio della prima Anna Oxa, versione punk. E' indirettamente testimone e collaboratore a lanci di altri personaggi, come Down Mitchell dei 40Nighters, di Patrizia Di Malta del Gruppo Italiano o di Diana Est, e di non trascurabili input e connections per Patty Pravo. Dal 1993 si dedica alla sua "life-art o linguaggi riuniti", spettacoli multimediali dove video-installazioni si amalgamano a racconti elettronici, a performance e canzoni.
